+ Description

This route offers a circuit of Guebwiller's two neighbouring valleys.

Firstly, you will pass through the Thann valley, before climbing the Col du Hundsruck. Once you have overcome the mountain pass, you will need to make a final push to climb the Col du Shirm.

You will then tip over into Masevaux Valley. At Michelbach, you will find the dam supplied by the Doller. Next, you will make your way back, following the Thur, the Thann Valley river.

The final part of the route is relatively flat.
