+ Description

The first part of the route is undulating; the first 45km will allow you to explore three mountain passes and to ascend at least 1300m. The summit of the main challenge will almost take you to Collet du Linge. After this point, simply turn left. Staying on the route, on your right you can visit the German cemetery of Linge Hohrod. The rest of the route will take you into the heart of the Alsace wine-growing region up to Guebwiller (your finishing point), taking the Wine Route. You will also pass the village of Eguisheim, chosen as France's Favourite Village
