+ Description

This 4-star holiday home is in a perfect location for foodie holidays in Eguisheim. You will be sleeping in a typical half-timbered Alsatian house. Its two bedrooms can accommodate up to four people.

Tucked away in the heart of the Ballons des Vosges Regional Nature Reserve, the house is found along Alsace's renowned Wine Route, on a vineyard in Eguisheim. The village has been endorsed as a "Station Verte de Vacances" (distinguishing countryside tourist resorts) and a "Village Cigognes" (recognising Alsatian villages participating in the protection of local storks), and also received the status of one of France's most beautiful villages.

Sure to keep kids busy, the toys/colouring books and games room are great for indoor playtime. From baby bottle warmer to baby bouncer to baby bath and more: the holiday home has everything you need to care for young children.

People on cycling holidays will be delighted to know that the house offers a secure bicycle garage.

The holiday home's balcony, communal terrace and communal garden furniture are a particular bonus for summer trips. It includes one bathroom with a bathtub and one separate toilet. It boasts plenty of home comforts, including a microwave, a fridge and a coffee machine in the fully-fitted kitchen, while a towel dryer, a communal tumble dryer and a hairdryer are provided too. Additionally, there is a TV.

Colmar train station is 7 km away. In addition to conventional payment methods, accepted modes of payment include bank transfer and "chèques vacances" (French holiday vouchers). German and English are spoken by the house's owners, besides French.
