+ Description

The Romance gardens invite you to dream and relax. Visitors will enjoy sitting on a stone bench or in the shade of the gazebo to recharge their batteries. A good time to spend, alone, with a friend or family.

At the front of an old farmhouse dating from the 17th century, visitors will discover a small garden of boxwood topiaries, perennials, roses and hydrangeas, harmoniously laid out around antique sandstone and wrought-iron decorative elements. Crossing the barn of the same property and passing under a hornbeam archway, the visitor will appreciate the calm and serenity of the park garden with its hundred-year-old willows, flower beds and various plants that blossom with the passing seasons under the benevolent gaze of Lady Statue. Congratulations from the departmental jury and honorary diploma in the 2018 Bas-Rhin towns and villages in bloom competition - "gîtes et accueils touristiques" category.
