

6768 Alsace

+ Description

Goose is cooked in many ways - Roasted for St. Martins' Day (11th November) with cabbage and sweet chestnuts (als. Martinsgans) - Stuffed neck of goose served either hot or cold - Soup made from goose giblets and vegetables prepared in winter when the fat geese are butchered.