+ Description

The Chou'Heim Auberge was once a tithe farm. It is said that one tenth of the harvest stored there was sent to the lord of the Castle which was located in the center of Krautergersheim at that time. This building was transformed into a restaurant in the 1990's and became one of the high places of the Alsatian traditional gastronomy.
Nowadays, you can taste there some traditional dishes such as the famous royal sauerkraut, but also tartes flambées or even novelties such as the Alsatian hamburger with Munster cheese!
It is the ideal place for your family, business or group meals!
