Route nationale 130
Le Struthof
67130 Belmont

+ Description

From Struthof, this route leads you quickly to the Champ du Messin, from where you have a magnificent view of the Rothaine valley. Your route then passes through the forest via the Kohlplatz crossroads before reaching your starting point again by bypassing the former Natzweiler-Struthof camp from below.

Caution: GPS tracking on a phone requires an adequate and well-charged battery. Low temperatures can reduce the capacity of batteries. For your safety, an external battery, a paper map and a compass are highly recommended for your winter outings.
