+ Description

The Château de Rohan was originally a Fort defending the valley located near the city center of Mutzig. After a restoration project in 1985, the castle becomes a cultural center of 2000 m² including, among other things, a show room of 220 places equipped for the cinema (sound Dolby Digital Surround Ex and screen of 8x4m), theatre, concerts and congresses.

This intimate room is equipped with a cinema screen, a digital projector, equipped dressing rooms, a stage and a light and sound control. The adjoining cafeteria allows you to offer friendly moments at the intermissions or at the end of the shows. It can also be rented.

Throughout the year, different events take place in this original place
