Discover Ebersmunster on a guided tour lasting around 45 minutes, in the heart of a village with an exceptional heritage.

Dominated by its majestic Baroque abbey church, the village invites you on a stroll through history, architecture and traditions. A former abbey founded in the 7th century, Ebersmunster reveals a rich medieval and religious heritage, as well as traces of its artisanal and riverine past.

As you wander the streets, half-timbered houses, ancient monastic buildings and historical remains tell the story of this Alsatian village’s unique character.

An unmissable getaway combining culture, history and Alsatian charm.
