+ Description

Set off to explore Scherwiller on a guided tour lasting around an hour, in the heart of a village rich in heritage and traditions.

Amidst half-timbered houses, old winegrowers' homes and narrow streets crossed by the Aubach, let yourself be charmed by the authenticity of the place. Renowned for its exceptional Riesling, Scherwiller draws its character from its terroir and its history, marked in particular by the famous Peasants' War.

A stroll through culture, wine and Alsatian charm.
