+ Description

A great adventure for the youngest, a change of scenery for the oldest, the ferry is an original experience to cross the Rhine. In just a few minutes you are in Germany.

Accessible to cyclists, pedestrians and all vehicles < 3.5 tons, with a capacity of 30 light vehicles and 170 passengers.

It makes a shuttle every 15 minutes. Free of charge all year round.

The ferry Rhénanus will join the Freistett shipyard for routine maintenance and modernization of its equipment on Monday 24 February with a planned return on Wednesday 20 May 2020.

The alternative routes are :

- to the north by crossing the Rhine at Gerstheim (RD 426);

- to the south by crossing the Rhine at Marckolsheim (RD 424).
