+ Description

This exhibition is presented alongside ZOOM: Faces and Works from the Würth Collection.

As part of the exhibition The World on the Skin, the Musée Würth invites you to meet photographer Camille Bonnefoi and discover her exhibition and artistic practice.

From 6 October 2026 to 3 January 2027, the Musée Würth presents The World on the Skin, an exhibition by Camille Bonnefoi, photographer and lecturer at the Haute école des Arts du Rhin. Her artistic practice is rooted in photographic experimentation, with anthotypes playing an important role.

Through a series of portraits and landscape photographs, the artist explores the emotional connections between human beings and the living world. The exhibition sheds light on lives shaped by a deep relationship with a place, an environment or an ecosystem.

This visit is offered as part of Strasbourg Art Week.
