+ Description

This extended route invites you, at first, to climb the Champ du Feu massif, the highest point of the Bas-Rhin. You then go down on the other side of the ridge in the Climontaite valley to reach the Steige pass. The circuit then leads you to the discovery of the source of the Bruche by going around the majestic Climont, dominating the clearing of the Hang. Then come back quietly along the Bruche by the cycle route of the valley.
