+ Description

Tour of 2 km marked out with explanatory panels - Duration: 1h30

Benefiting from a micro-climate, the Bruderthal (le val des frères) is an AOC Alsace Grand Cru. Its name refers to the Cistercian monks who cultivated it as far back as the early 14th century. The complexity and richness that characterize its wines and are found in Muscat, Riesling, Gewurtztraminer and Pinot Gris.

Visits to the trail are not recommended during the harvest period.
