+ Description

The charming flowery village of Oberhaslach is located about 40 km west of Strasbourg at the entrance to the Bruche valley and at the foot of the Nideck waterfalls.

Five guest rooms, a furnished holiday flat and a restaurant have been created in an old Vosges farmhouse made of ashlar dating from 1838, which has been restored by Bénédicte and Sylvain, two sculptors. The rooms and the furnished guest house are managed by Sylvain, while the "LOTEL" restaurant is run by the couple's two sons, Vincent and Victorien.

Every corner of the house reflects the artistic atmosphere that reigns here thanks to the cleverly displayed works of art, right down to the garden, a place of relaxation where you can have breakfast and dinner among Sylvain's artworks in fine weather.

The ideal starting point for discovering the Vosges massif with its 60 kilometres of sculpture trails in the forest, the start of the wine route and the many places of interest such as Mont Sainte-Odile, the Alsace-Moselle memorial or the surrounding castles
