Plunge into the magical atmosphere of the Middle Ages and let yourself be transported by the Christmas of yesteryear!

Saturday, December 13, from 3pm to 6pm, on Place de l'Hôtel de Ville, the courageous knights of the Czech group Alotrium will face off in spectacular battles.
Thrills and wonder guaranteed!"

Sunday, December 14, at 11am in the town center, the mayor will hand over the keys to the town, before sharing a medieval banquet and soup offered to the public.

From 12pm to 6pm, the town center will come alive: Merlin and the Mestres dragonniers will roam the streets, while fire-eaters and knights will parade among the medieval market and street entertainment.

At 3pm and 5pm, medieval processions and parades, including the last one with torches, will illuminate the town with a thousand glows.

To round off this enchanting day, meet at 6pm in the courtyard of the Chartreuse for a fire and light show that will set the night ablaze.

On-site catering: wild boar on the spit and lard des gueux... for a taste of the flavors of yesteryear.
