+ Description

This former wine-growing village, just a few minutes' drive from Niederbronn-les-Bains, boasts a rich architectural heritage with traditional houses dating back to the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries. You will discover many traces of this past engraved in the sandstone and in the beams of the half-timbered houses... keep your eyes peeled!

Stroll from street to street to discover this authentic village in our region. More details are available on the brown signs that mark the route.
