+ Description

Discover Bergheim, elected favourite village of the French in 2022 ! The city invites you to a bucolic walk through its magnificent lanes of an incomparable charm.

Are you attracted by medieval architecture ? Bergheim will respond to your expectations ! Its 2 kms long ramparts of the XIVth century, lined with majestic towers, will impress you by their exceptional preservation. Enhanced by flowers in summer , the half timbered houses give the village a unique romantic atmosphere.

Bergheim offers nature lovers very nice medieval gardens nestled in the heart of the city. Walkers can go along its various paths : wether those are in the vineyards, in the forest or on the Grasberg hill (classified Natura 2000), they will make everybody happy.

If you are Alsace wine lovers, Bergheim will satisfy your desire to discover as the city is the capital of the Gewurztraminer. Its « grands crus » streching out on the hills of the « Altenberg » and « Kanzlerberg » will satisfy the most demanding palates.

At last, one more treasure among others can be discovered during exhibitions in the synagog before leaving Bergheim : a mosaic dating back to the gallo-roman era.

Despite the context of energy restriction, the illuminations will be maintained from the 1st Sunday of Advent until mid-January but restricted in intra and extra-muros.
