+ Description

Also known as "The Authentic Museum", the woodworking and heritage space has been staffed since the year 2000 by passionate volunteers who are ready to show visitors vintage machinery and the beginning of mechanization.

Several times a day, guides present the ancestral know-how of the workers of yesteryear, and activate the vintage machines for the visitors. Loaded with history, the space of the wood trades and the heritage reserves beautiful anecdotes.

From October 1 to 18, group visits by prior arrangement only.
