+ Description

Ottrott, a scenic little village nestling in a sea of green and the village of Mont Sainte-Odile, will make you feel welcome with its floral ambiance. Ottrott offers a wide range of possibilities for enjoyment and discovery. While taking a hike, you can discover the Pagan Wall, a 10.5 km-long wall winding through the forest, the origins of which remain unknown to this day. As for the wine growers, they will impress you with the indisputable know-how they put into making Rouge d'Ottrott, a Burgundy grape variety that has been grown here since the 11th century. Higher up, Mont Sainte-Odile is an centre of both tourism and pilgrimage in Alsace. Magnificent panoramas will allow you to admire the Plain of Alsace and the Vosges Mountains.
