+ Description

Mollkirch is a restful, revitalising sight to behold. As you hike through the mountain, you will discover the ruins of Guirbaden Castle, one of the largest in Alsace, built in the 11th century. You will be enchanted by the Celtic imaginings of the Demoiselles de Pierre Trail, with its forest elves and fairies. Next, hunting horns, which echo across mountains and valleys, will guide you to Laubenheim, where you the Kloesterlé Chapel, dating back to the 12th century, is waiting to be discovered.
