+ Description

Discover a hilly walk with surprising and colourful twists and turns. Twelve information panels line this lovely trail on the hills above Rosenwiller, helping you to discover the unique features of the limestone hills of Holiesel and Berg.

Did you know?

These dry hills owe part of their existence to traditional grazing.
No fewer than 16 species of wild orchids find a home here, as well as the pasque flower, which blooms from the end of February. Numerous species of birds and insects can also be spotted here.

This hike crosses the Nature Reserve of the dry hills of Bischenberg, Immerschenberg and Holiesel. To find out more, you can visit this website
