+ Description

The difficulty of this hike is exclusively due to its length.

In May 1941, in the place called "Struthof", the Nazis opened a concentration camp: KZ Natzweiler-Struthof.

The only concentration camp in France, it was located in Alsace, which was annexed by Germany at the time. A labour camp, it was also a site where Nazi doctors carried out experiments.

22,000 prisoners died there.

Hiking tour taken from the "Topo-Guide Randonnée" guidebook (10 tours) for sale at the Obernai Tourist Office.

Only in french.
