>Description

Go on an adventure and take part in Obernoé's rally!

Obernoé is a little boy who loves his planet Earth very much, but is worried about the way humans are mistreating it: pollution, deforestation, climatic degradation.... He's worried that all these conditions could create a flood that would threaten the lives of his animal friends.

Help him save them by completing the 20 stages of the rally through the city!

For children aged 6 to 11. Game booklet on sale at the Tourist Office.
