+ Description

Every Thursday morning: 7.30am to 12pm, except public holidays: brought forward to Wednesday.

Cited in archival documents as far back as 1301, Obernai's weekly Thursday morning market is over 700 years old.

Popular with the inhabitants of a large area around Obernai, the market welcomes 127 traders each week, who have a fixed location, and 30 to 40 other traders who take part in a draw each Thursday to allocate the remaining spaces.

To complete this local offer of fresh, quality local produce, a complementary market is held on Saturday mornings, dedicated to organic produce.

Due to the completion of works on the rue de Sélestat, from the junction with the rue du Général Baegert to the salle des fêtes, from January 15 to April 9 inclusive, the Thursday market will be held in the Parking des Remparts under and around the Halle Gruber.
