+ Description

Born in Strasbourg, André Pfrimmer graduated in architecture from the Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Arts et Industries.

He has enjoyed this work of synthesis, with a constant concern for perspective, volumes, proportions, building details, materials and, of course, color, as well as respect for the beauty of Alsace's landscapes and heritage.

The same approach guides the choice of subjects for his watercolors, which he naturally draws from sites or architecture, trying to recreate them with all that they convey of their era!
