+ Description

The 2026 edition of Printemps de la clarinette turns to the Baroque period.

In the first half, the Clarinet Choirs of Bischheim (conducted by Romuald Jallet) and Haguenau (conducted by Ariane Stoll) will be delighted to perform works by Bach, Rameau and Lully.

In the second half, students from the clarinet classes of the municipal music and dance schools of Bischheim (teacher: Romuald Jallet), Haguenau (teacher: Ariane Stoll) and Obernai (teacher: Laurent Will) will take you into the mystical world of Athanor, an opera for children by Claude-Henri Joubert.

They will be accompanied by singers from the Pré-maîtrise de l'Ecole Ste Philomène de Haguenau (conductor: Annette Schäfer). Let yourself be surprised by the many adventures our young (and not so young) musicians will face on their quest for the... philharmonic stone!

Due to roadworks on rue de Sélestat, please park in the Remparts parking lot.
