+ Description

In the intimate and exceptional setting of the Spindler workshops in Saint-Léonard, come and discover or rediscover the figures of the Alsatian women who have contributed to endowing music with rare and striking pieces, like sleeping beauties finally awakened from their torpor, and whose inner fire was only waiting for a spark to awaken and fill us with wonder! Let's get together and celebrate this rebirth!

This tribute concert to female composers from Alsace is introduced by musicologist Paul-Philippe Meyer, and followed by an aperitif and a guided tour of the Spindler marquetry workshop.

With Jean-Frédéric Neuburger (piano), Geneviève Laurenceau (violin), Amaury Viduvier (clarinet), Marc Coppey (cello), Michèle Bréant (soprano), Paul-Philippe Meyer (musicologist)

Works by : Marie Jaell, Marie Bigot de Morogues, Marguerite Hugel, Edith Sutter...
