+ Description

A great triathlon for everyone, from beginners to the international elite.

This event, which attracts some 2,400 participants over 2 days each year, is a successful marriage between top-level sport and amateur beginners.

With 7 events for all ages (from 5 years upwards) and all levels of experience, beginners, amateurs and experienced triathletes will find an event to suit them. Starting in Benfeld, with its lake and natural setting, then cycling along the Alsace wine route.

For the more experienced, a mountain section will give you the chance to rub shoulders with a Grand Site de France as you climb Mont Ste Odile at an altitude of 760m. The race finishes in Obernai with a run through the medieval town, orchards and vineyards.
