+ Description

A music-themed interactive workshop. Come help Gontran-Bernard Mozart—the great-great-great-great-grandson of the famous composer—find his lost sheet music!

Gontran-Bernard Mozart is a great conductor. He is the great-great-great-great-grandson of the famous classical composer Amadeus Mozart. Over the past four years, Gontran-Bernard has been composing a grand symphony. His life's work. But unfortunately, just as he was writing the final notes, the wind rushed in through his wide-open bedroom window and scattered the sheet music to the four corners of his house. The children will have to help Gontran-Bernard find all the sheet music.

Free. For children ages 4 to 7. Duration: approx. 1 hour.

Reservations required at 03.88.95.18.20 or mediatheque@obernai.fr
