+ Description

Galerie Goralsky hosts an exhibition by two artists, Christine Barth Mroz and Muriel Lopez.

Christine Barth Mroz, a self-taught painter, has been exploring emotions through abstract painting for 20 years. Drawing her inspiration from music, the artist gives free rein to her creative gestures, emphasizing the pleasure of letting go and painting, often with her hands.

Muriel Lopez Sculptor discovered clay and its various techniques when her first daughter was born. She has developed a personal style combining wire and clay. Her approach is based on a contemporary vision of society, with all its sensitivities and shortcomings. Once fired at very high temperatures, the sculptures are patinated and oxidized to give them a bronze or copper effect.
