+ Description

The Centre Socio-Culturel Arthur Rimbaud invites you to a lecture by Éric Keiser, a former ONF technical manager, to better understand the effects of climate change on our forests.

Presentation of the alarming health situation of our forests, and the slow and progressive impoverishment of plant and animal biodiversity in forest areas.

The lecture is free of charge and requires registration on 03 88 95 01 24 and info@cscarimbaud.com, followed in spring by an immersive forest outing.
