Description

This morning's "post Bac special" will cover a wide range of professional sectors.

Throughout the morning, from 9am to 12pm, teachers, trainers and students from various establishments will be presenting their post-baccalaureate diploma courses in sectors with high employment potential.

Visitors will be able to find out about all the different sectors (agriculture, agri-food, environment, water, forestry, landscape, regional development, human health, machinery, industrial sectors - maintenance, nuclear, air conditioning, commerce, IT) and the range of training courses - from BTS to engineering school - on offer for each of them.

Talk to the main people involved in these courses and find out about the careers they prepare you for.

High school students and parents, get valuable guidance advice to help you prepare for the start of the new school year!
