+ Description

The hike starts on the famous GR5. As you gradually gain altitude, you will enjoy the rural setting and the clear views of the Welche country. Follow the path until you reach the highest points of the hike: the Grand Brézouard (1229m) and the Petit Brézouard (1203m). Let yourself be enchanted by the last few kilometres by following the small steep path that leads you to the castle of Le Bonhomme. This is an exotic stage with breathtaking views over the valley and the village.

We promise you that you will quickly forget the steepness in front of the exceptional scenery that awaits you on this circuit.

Our favourites of the hike:

to reach the summits of the Grand and Petit Brézouard
the panoramic view from the Haïcot stubble the picturesque path that leads to the castle of Le Bonhomme and its magical view
