+ Description

After years of silence and a long-awaited rebirth, Château de la Léonardsau is opening a new chapter in its history. What has happened within its walls over the decades? What transformations, secrets and anecdotes have shaped its identity?

Specialising in forgotten stories and well-hidden curiosities, Mademoiselle Muriel takes you on a lively and sensitive stroll through the rooms and gardens. Between poetic tales, mischievous nods and historical insights, the tour blends imagination and reality to reveal the rich heritage of the place.

Designed for young and old alike, this walk invites everyone to marvel, learn and share a special moment in a setting steeped in charm and memory. It is an original and accessible way to explore the history of the castle, while leaving room for imagination and emotion.
