+ Description

As part of the Christmas charity concerts in the Pays de Sainte-Odile, this concert is presented by the Mélod'Hin Vocal Ensemble. Proceeds will benefit the organizations Obern'aide and Les Amis des Pensionnaires des Berges de l'Ehn.

The Mélod'Hin vocal group is an amateur a cappella choir—meaning they perform without instrumental accompaniment—a challenging feat that requires harmony and precision in pitch and rhythm.
Their 15 voices blend, echo one another, and resonate with emotion over varied, jazzy rhythms, under the direction of Henri Hebting.
