+ Description

Obernai has hosted a weekly market on Thursday mornings since the 14th century. To complement this local shopping experience, the City of Obernai has established an additional market on Saturday mornings dedicated to organic products.
This weekly market allows people who are unable to attend the Thursday morning market to take advantage of an additional option, where more than twenty local producers offer fresh, high-quality, seasonal products.

In the event of an organized event at the Parking des Remparts and the Halle Gruber, the market will take place on the Rempart Foch, above the Swal Gate.
