+ Description

Since the beginning of the adventure in 1946, Stoeffler has been driven by the desire to share its Alsatian culinary traditions and has at heart to offer gourmet products with a good taste of the land. Today, Stoeffler is recognized as a true ambassador of Alsatian culinary know-how.

Do you know the Alsatian cuisine?

Tasty products from a rich land, prepared with care by men and women who share a taste for the truly good. A big spoonful of generosity, a touch of inventiveness and there you have it!

And because passion has more flavor when it is shared, Stoeffler's mission is to make the heart of Alsace throb in every plate.
