+ Description

With over 170 years of history, Distillerie Lehmann is the oldest distillery in Alsace. Ancestral know-how has been handed down from father to son for 6 generations.

In 2000, Yves Lehmann launched his first whisky production and became one of the first whisky distillers in France.

His son, Florent, is determined to bring a new dynamic and expand the distillery's product range.

In 2012, the distillery became the first in Alsace to be awarded the EPV - Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant - label.

This is a guarantee of excellence and rare, ancestral know-how.

Come and admire Distillerie Lehmann's ancestral stills and taste our many products, which have won prizes at the Concours Général Agricole de Paris every year for over 30 years.

Our boutique is open Monday to Saturday, 9.00am to 12.00pm and 2.00pm to 6.00pm.
