+ Description

On a mountain hike or simply during a drive, stop for a bite to eat at the Gazon du Faing. Try its famous baeckeoffe or its munster pie! Don't resist their blueberry pie... This mountain restaurant combines simplicity and taste. A traditional and regional cuisine, where all the dishes are home-made. The auberge is located at 1300 metres above sea level, on the GR5 and a stone's throw away from an orientation table with one of the most beautiful views of the Vosges massif. It is a welcome stop between the Schlucht pass and the Lac Blanc resort. Access by snowshoe, cross-country skiing, and on foot in winter. In summer, easily accessible by car, motorbike, bicycle or on foot. Apart from the usual openings, the Auberge opens for bookings of 10 or more people. The inn is open subject to favourable weather conditions. Please contact us to confirm opening times.
