+ Description

From the end of November and throughout December, come and discover the warm and intimate Christmas market.

A stroll through the streets of the town is an enchanting experience: illuminations and natural fir decorations highlight the Renaissance architecture of the town center.

From their wooden chalets in the town's squares, the artisans and producers of the Marché de Noël invite you to stock up on gourmet local produce and artisan gifts, amid the scents of gingerbread and mulled wine.

A local specialty not to be missed: the tasting of white mulled wine from Obernois, for its unique taste and for the atmosphere that reigns around the cauldron of the Corporation des vigneronns!

The Marché de la Gastronomie de Noël en Alsace showcases all the local gastronomic specialities of Alsatian Christmas.

Organized jointly by the town and the Tourist Office, it has just been awarded the prestigious "Les Plus Belles Fêtes de France" label, a national recognition of the quality, authenticity and collective commitment of this emblematic event!

Inauguration on Friday, November 28 at 6pm. Lundi-mardi-mercredi-jeudi 10:00-19:00.

Vendredi-samedi-dimanche 10:00-20:00. Closed on December 25. Closed at 4pm on December 24 and 31.
