Description

The Fête de la Musique is one of the cultural events that punctuate the French year. This event, where the population is both actor and spectator, is perpetuated in Obernai with the desire to meet the expectations of all listeners.

The program emphasizes the diversity of musical styles, from the Cour Athic to the Place du Marché, to bring together a wide audience: rock, pop-rock, funk, classical music, French chanson... Participants are Sunday musicians, students or professionals, all sharing the same passion.
