+ Description

Organized as part of the Christmas charity concerts in the Pays de Sainte-Odile, with proceeds going to Obern'aide and Les Amis des Pensionnaires des Berges de l'Ehn. The Collegium Cantorum offers a Christmas repertoire.

Founded in 1986 by Erwin List and now directed by Nicolas Jean, Strasbourg's Collegium Cantorum vocal ensemble is recognized as one of Alsace's leading interpreters of polyphonic art. Comprising some forty singers, the choir has performed a wide range of secular and spiritual works from the 16th to the 20th centuries. The choir cultivates the classical repertoire, but also enjoys discovering lesser-known works that are always musically fascinating. Depending on the repertoire, the choir sings a capella, with organ or orchestral accompaniment.
