+ Description

As part of the Christmas charity concerts in the Pays de Sainte-Odile, this concert is given by the Orchestre Symphonique des Jeunes de Strasbourg Plateau in aid of the Obern'aide and Les Amis des Pensionnaires des Berges de l'Ehn associations.

As an association, the OJS Orchestre des Jeunes de Strasbourg is completely independent. It is not part of any apprenticeship program, and its members' participation depends solely on their motivation. Recruited by audition, the instrumentalists all have different profiles (secondary school pupils, students, young professionals), but share one thing in common: a passion for music.

Under the direction of Gustave Winkler since summer 2016, the Orchestre symphonique des Jeunes de Strasbourg has built its reputation on high-quality musical work, coupled with good humor and spontaneity that leave no listener indifferent.
