+ Description

When the Spark of the Flame arrived in Thannenkirch, it spread its magic throughout the village. One by one, the wooden statues came to life, as if by magic. Ever since, a rumor has been circulating: the Spark is said to have hidden itself among one of these statues, which is carefully watching over it. But which one?

To find out, set off on an adventure through the streets of Thannenkirch! Follow the clues on your game sheet, observe your surroundings, and solve the riddles you'll encounter along the way. Carefully write down each of your answers: at the end of the treasure hunt, they'll help you reveal the identity of the mystery statue where the Spark of the Alsatian Christmas Flame is hidden.

A fun activity that invites young and old alike to explore Thannenkirch in a new way, while discovering its wooden statues and the charm of this Alsatian village.

Once you've solved the riddle, claim your reward and collect a new stamp in your passport. Other "Éclats" are hidden in neighboring villages: continue the adventure and fulfill the prophecy!
