+ Description

For the last 20 years, the Obernai winegrowers' guild has been offering wine tasting on the last Sunday in August, in the heart of the Schenkenberg hill, as part of an 8 km gastronomic walk punctuated by 9 gourmet breaks.

The wines tasted will be on sale at the end of the tour.

The tour takes place exclusively on footpaths free of traffic, with exceptional panoramic views over the Alsace plain and Mont Sainte Odile at the Memorial (Croix blanche).

Musical entertainment and tarts flambées at the end of the tour.

Online registration and payment. Live display of available slots. Departures in groups between 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Registration opens in spring 2024.
