+ Description

For its third edition, this event will offer local runners of all levels, as well as international runners keen to discover the region and experience a unique journey through time.

Runners will be able to embark on a chivalrous epic through the Vosges mountains, exploring castles and picturesque villages along paths where nature is both wild and unspoiled.

With its exceptional scenery and demanding routes, this promises to be an unforgettable event. New this year: Obernai will not only be the finish for the 7,000 runners, but also the starting point!
